KCBS

The KCBS Contest is sanctioned by KCBS and, accordingly, the KCBS Rules and Regulations apply. It is recommended to download the KCBS Rules and Regulations handbook at on the www.KCBS.us,

KCBS COOK RULES:

Each contest is sanctioned by the Kansas City Barbeque Society, whose rules apply to the four main KCBS entries of Chicken, Pork Ribs, Pork and Beef Brisket. See Rulebook at www.kcbs.us/downloads/rules_reg_2017_with_dec_edit.pdf . Eligible competitors also can earn points towards the NEBS "Team of the Year" by registering themselves on www.nebs.org .

NEBS COOK RULES:

Contests sanctioned by the Northeast Barbecue Society must be prepared in accordance with NEBS Rules and presented the way the cook wants it to be eaten. All entries must be cooked on site and include at least 6 portions. Eligible competitors can earn points towards the NEBS "Ken Dakai Cup" by registering themselves on www.nebs.org , and adhering to applicable NEBS rules.

Judging:

Each team must attend the Mandatory cooks meeting (high school building). The turn in location, and any other questions will be answered at this time. It is suggested that all contestants and advisors attend this meeting. Your numbered boxes will be handed out at this time.

Each team will receive individual judge's scores in each category as well as any feedback the judges wish to include as to why they scored the way they did.

Questions regarding scoring / weighting factors / point system, etc. should be directed to your contest rep. The decision of the judges, contest reps and organizers are final.

ILBBOF Rules:

All NEBS and KCBS rules apply as presented on their respective websites and Rules of Conduct apply to all areas of the competition areas.

Electricity: please communicate your electrical needs to Dmitry on your application.

Electricity for light general use only such as lighting is provided at no cost. Please bring 100' of extension cord and outdoor rated power strips for your electrical hookup. If you have higher electrical requirements than general lighting you must bring your own quiet run generator.

Ice: Ice is available on-site at a nominal cost.
